

Gauchos Fail in Upset Bid

OPEN EVENINGS 'TIL 9
OPEN SUNDAY 'TIL 5:30

Hopes of a Marine League football title ended for Narbonne Friday afternoon when Gardena helped its own cause along with a 34-19 triumph in a penalty-marred encounter. With two straight upsets to its credit, Narbonne was seeking to remain in the championship picture and knock the Mohicans out of contention—but just the reverse occurred.

IN A hard-hitting struggle, Gardena managed a one-point lead by halftime and then held Narbonne scoreless after intermission while adding 13 more points to its own total. Gardena, with a 3-1 record, is now the only team left with a chance of deadlocking Jordan for the league championship. The high-flying Bulldogs eased by Banning on Friday and now boast a 4-0 mark. If Gardena wants a title tie, it will have to do the job all by itself. The Mohicans and Jordan hook up in the final circuit encounter of the year on Friday.

The Mohicans erupted with 14 points in a wild first quarter and then tacked on six more in the second period.

Finally clicking on offense, Narbonne refused to remain idle and tallied seven points in the opening quarter and 12 more in the second stanza to trail 20-19 at the half.

AFTER INTERMISSION, only Gardena could hit paydirt and it cost Narbonne the game. The Mohicans tallied in the third period and added an insurance TD with just two minutes left in the contest.

Al Lopez tallied twice for Gardena. Now only a 6-0 loss to Banning nars a perfect season record for Gardena.

Despite the defeat, Narbonne is enjoying its finest grid campaign since 1958. Two weeks ago, with a 7-0 win over San Pedro, the Gauchos snapped a three year, 24-game losing skein.

One week later, with a surprise triumph over Banning, Narbonne put two wins together for the first time since 1958 and sent its Marine League title hopes soaring.

FINALLY back to earth, the Gauchos have only a game Friday with Carson to improve their Marine League status. Banning and Narbonne are now deadlocked for the third place slot with 2-2 records.

Although the Colts boast only one circuit triumph, they have not been disgraced by an opponent. In its first year of competition, Carson stunned San Pedro, 13-0, Friday afternoon to ring up its second pigskin decision of the year.

SCALPING PARTY . . . Val Loalagi (30) and Ron Platisha from Narbonne put the brakes on a Gardena halfback during action on the Gauchos home field Friday afternoon. The Mohicans held onto an eight point lead, however, and left the gridiron with their own scalp intact. The victory gave Gardena undisputed possession of second place in the Marine League, behind undefeated Jordan High. (Herald Photo)

TOPPLE LAWNDALE

Warrior Cindermen Finish Second in Pioneer League

Clinching a second place finish in the Pioneer League cross country race, West High captured a 17-40 (low score wins) decision over Lawndale on Friday. Coming through in the absence of number one runner

Tom Jurco, Dave Graham toured the Lawndale course in 9:36 to lead the Warriors. Trailing Graham were Lou Bisou, 1st in 9:38; Ron Pettigrew, 3rd in 9:38; Bob Clark, 5th in 9:46, and Dick Buchanan, 6th in 9:50.

John Smith led a 17-46 West junior varsity triumph as he clocked 9:49 for first place.

MIKE SELLERS, 2nd in 9:56; Howard McVay, 3rd in 10:00; Paul Dumont, 5th in 10:03, and Tom Fraser, 6th in 10:06, followed Smith to the wire. In novice competition, the Warriors grabbed the first five places to bring home a perfect-score 15-50 victory. Bob Cantelero was the first Redskin to finish, stopping the clocks in 10:16.

TOM JOHNSTON, 10:19; Ken Gromberg, 10:40; Ron Rodriguez, 10:48, and Frank Searcy, 10:49, filled out the top five places.

Coach Bob Hottel's team will return to action Thursday in the Pioneer League finals at Centinela Park in Inglewood. Hottel predicts a second place finish for West. Aviation, the league dual meet champ, is favored to take the crown.

Recreation Fives Begin Workouts

Torrance Recreation Department basketball teams are currently in the midst of two months of practice that will culminate with the beginning of league competition in January. Gymnasiums at North, South and Torrance high schools have been made available for practice by the Torrance Unified School District, Elmer "Red" Moon, adult athletics supervisor for the recreation department, said this week. Moon said each league will be composed of six teams.

Members of the Church League are scheduled to practice on Mondays at North High while quintets composing the Industrial League will operate on the same floor Thursday nights. North basketball coach Skip Enger will supervise activities. During November, A m b l e League teams will work out Mondays at North High, Tuesday League squads will practice on Thursdays at South High, and Thursday Open League quintets will meet on Thursdays at North High.

McBeath Paces Saxons To Cross Country Win

Consistent junior harrier Gordon McBeath contributed his usual first place for North Friday afternoon and the Saxons proceeded to wind up the Sky League dual meet campaign with an 18-39 (low score wins) decision over Inglewood. Running on the two-mile Centinela Park course, McBeath finished in 10:30 to go ahead of Dennis Hansen, 2nd in 10:31, and Tom Foley, 3rd in 10:33. Dave Ramsey grabbed a 5th in 10:35 and Dan LaCoe earned a 6th in 10:50. Mike Hansen paced a 17-46 junior varsity victory for North. Gary McDonald and Bruce Allen finished second and third for the Saxons. Pat Reeves snared a first place in novice competition but Inglewood managed a 22-33 win. On Friday, North will run in the Sky League finals at Morningside. In dual meet competition, the Saxons finished in a three-way tie for second with Beverly Hills and Leuzinger. Morningside won the title. North's junior varsity squad wound up second in the league while the novice team took a fourth place.
